NEW CHAIRPERSON OF THE NKR CEC HAS BEEN ELECTED

18.07.2013

The issue on electing NKR CEC Chairperson was put to the agenda of July 16 of the NKR Central Electoral Commission.

Opening the session Deputy Chariman of the NKR CEC mentioned that On July 9,2013 by the Decree of the NKR President were early quit the authorizations of CEC Chairman, as well as, member of the NKR CEC Rashid Petrosyan by the agreement of his application. According to the awareness of Y.Arzoumanyan Chief of the Control Service of the NKR Prime Minister Srbouhi Arzoumanyan was appointed a member of the NKR CEC by the decree of July 15 of the Republic President. So, as stated Y. Arzoumanyan, it was necessary to elect Chair of the commission among CEC staff. Boris Alaverdyan, member of the NKR Central Electoral Commission, offered the nomination of newly appointed member Srbouhi Arzoumanyan for that position simultaneously presenting her biography. Srbouhi Arzoumanyan was unanimously elected as CEC Chairperson by the open voting of CEC .Congratulating the newly appointed Chair on behalf of the present Y. Arzoumanyan wished her success in that important and responsible work hoping that there she would fully justify herself as well as in other spheres of work.

Expressing gratitude for the confidence S.Arzumanyan said in particular, "I hope and I am also sure that at the result of joint work we should not only keep the good traditions of the system, but we should use the best experience of the world, innovations and new ideas.The key issue of the NKR electoral system was and still remains the ensuring and maintenance of the electoral rights of the citizens in the electoral process and, in this context, the issue on preserving international rating of our Republic.

Laura GRIGORYAN